

Nobel symposium in Economic Sciences: Microdevelopment research in the last 20 years

March 12-14, 2024, STIAS, Stellenbosch, South Africa

75 min per session: 30 min presentation, 15X2 discussion, 15 min general discussion

No. Session	Presenter	Discussant 1	Discussant 2
1 Poverty alleviation / social protection	Oriana Bandiera, LSE	Abhijit Banerjee, MIT	Christopher Udry, Northwestern University
2 Health	Pascaline Dupas, Stanford	James Habyarimana, Georgetown University	Martina Björkman Nyqvist, Stockholm Sch. of Economics
3 Agriculture	Tavneet Suri, MIT	Karen Macours, Paris School of Economics	Alemayehu Seyoum Tafesse, IFPRI
4 Firms	Eric Verhoogen, Columbia University	Chris Woodruff, University of Oxford	Jonas Hjort, UCL
5 Education	Isaac Mbiti, University of Virginia	Esther Duflo, MIT	Germano Mwabu, University of Nairobi
6 Labor/migration	Supreet Kaur, UC Berkeley	Girum Abebe, World Bank Ethiopia Office	Mushfiq Mobarak, Yale University
7 Finance	Emily Breza, Harvard University	Lorenzo Casaburi, University of Zurich	Dean Karlan, Northwestern University
8 Trade	Dave Donaldson, MIT	Paula Bustos, CEMFI	Amit Khandelwal, Yale University
9 Governance	Leonard Wantchekon, Princeton	Claudio Ferraz, University of British Columbia	Monica Martinez-Bravo, CEMFI
10 Climate	Seema Jayachandran, Princeton	Ted Miguel, UC Berkeley	Robin Burgess, LSE
11 Gender	Eliana LaFerrara, Harvard Kennedy School	Nava Ashraf, LSE	Dori Posel, Wits University
12 PANEL: Microdevelopment Research and Development Policy in Africa	Stefan Dercon, University of Oxford; Ernest Aryeetey, University of Ghana. 2-3 more speakers will be invited.		